Clue #1 Evidence

It was Molly's birthday and she was so excited! She had just turned 10 years old and her mom had given her a cookbook for her birthday. She thought about what to make first. There were so many choices: pizza sliders, macaroni and cheese, grilled cheese sandwiches, and cupcakes. While she sat at the table reading the recipes, she had a great idea. Her friend Becca's birthday was in a few days and she wanted to surprise her friend with something special. Molly's mom asked her if she had decided on a recipe. "I know what I'm going to make. I will need flour, sugar, and eggs!" Molly exclaimed.

What do you think Molly will do next?
