Formatting Hunt: Features

Find three different nonfiction books. Scan each work and observe the formatting choices made by the author and publishing team. In particular, take a look at titles, headings, and subheadings.

- Are they formatted differently?
- Are they indented?
- Is the font a different size, color, or case (lower/upper)?
- Are they bold or underlined?
- What else do you notice?

Title of Book	Formatting Observations

Look back at the information you collected, comparing all three texts. What is similar? What is different?

Did you find any instances of formatting that you had never noticed before?
