

STRAWBERRY FRACTIONS

Amy is selling her strawberries at her fruit stand in the local farmer's market. She starts the day with $11\frac{1}{2}$ bushels of strawberries.

prices

- $3 bushel of strawberries
- \$2 $\frac{1}{2}$ bushel of strawberries
- \$1.25 $\frac{1}{4}$ bushel of strawberries
- \$.75 $\frac{1}{8}$ bushel of strawberries

Ellen needs $4\frac{3}{4}$ bushels for her bakery.

How many bushels are left? _____

How much money did she pay? _____

Billy came to buy $1\frac{1}{4}$ bushels.

How many bushels are left? _____

How much money did he pay? _____

Todd and his family came to buy $2\frac{3}{8}$ bushels.

How many bushels are left? _____

How much money did they pay? _____

Jack wants to buy $\frac{1}{2}$ a bushel but could only afford $\frac{3}{8}$ of a bushel.

How many bushels does Amy have left? _____

How much money did he pay? _____

How many bushels were sold today? _____

How much money was made today? _____