Get Ready to Write Nonfiction

It's almost time to write a nonfiction text! Before you start, find another text on the same topic. Look closely at the way the author created his or her text. Then answer the questions below.

Name of text:

Topic of text:

1. What did you learn about the topic through the text?

2. What kinds of text features were included in the text (diagrams, pictures, glossary, table of contents, etc.)?

3. How will you use what you learned when writing your own text?
