

Getting Possessive with Apostrophes

Let's learn about how apostrophes show the correct possessive form of a noun. Apostrophes are added to the end of a singular or plural noun to show possession.

Here are some examples:

singular	dog + 's	= dog's
plural	dogs + '	= dogs'

Add apostrophes to show the correct possessive form of the nouns.

1.	The kids <input type="text"/> weeks of party planning were about to be tested.
2.	Today was Ms. Trevett <input type="text"/> birthday, and the students couldn't wait to surprise her.
3.	The girls <input type="text"/> decorations and the boys <input type="text"/> cards were ready and waiting.
4.	Pedro <input type="text"/> eyes were fixed on the doorway looking for the first sign of Ms. Trevett.
5.	The students <input type="text"/> patience was wearing thin as they waited for their teacher to arrive.
6.	Finally, they heard their teacher <input type="text"/> familiar footsteps coming down the hall.
7.	Everyone <input type="text"/> heart was racing as they crouched down waiting to surprise Ms. Trevett.
8.	Suddenly, the room was filled with the children <input type="text"/> joyous shouts of "Surprise!"

Write a sentence using the correct possessive form of each noun.

1.	friends
2.	cake
3.	party
4.	tables
