

CONJUNCTIONS

Conjunctions are words that join words and phrases together in sentences.
The most commonly used conjunctions are and, but and or.

Other conjunctions are: for, nor, yet, and so.

Fill in the conjunction that you think best fits these sentences.
In some sentences, it may be possible to use more than one!

Mom said we can go to the beach _____ go to the amusement park today.

Gabriela, Christina, _____ Candice will give their presentation together.

We were going to play outside, _____ it was too cold.

I'll either wear a dress _____ a skirt to the party.

Our lead actor is home sick, _____ Todd will take his place.