

Grammar Review:

Adverbs

An adverb describes a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. It tells where, why, or how the action takes place. Many adverbs, but not all, end in -ly.

Part 1. Underline the adverbs in the following sentences.

1. Stephanie talked softly to her pet rabbit.
2. The man swiftly moved his car into the driveway.
3. Allison sings well.
4. Chris swung hard at the baseball pitch.
5. You must walk very slowly and carefully when there is ice on the sidewalk.
6. It was the most beautiful rose in the country.

Part 2. Write an adverb in the blank to complete the sentence.

1. The dog howled _____ at the moon.
2. Sarah slept _____ after the _____ long day at school.
3. He _____ jumped into the swimming pool.
4. The man laughed _____ at the jokes.

Part 3. The underlined adverbs in the following sentences are incorrect. Change the adverbs to make the sentence correct.

1. The lion very roars on the plain. _____
2. The ghost glided hard through the wall. _____
3. I like the silently short cartoons. _____
4. When Jill falls, she falls often. _____