

GRAMMAR REVIEW

ARTICLES

Remember: An article is a word used before a noun to clarify the noun. English articles are usually "a," which is used before a word that starts with a consonant sound; "an," which is used before a word that starts with a vowel sound, and "the."

Underline the articles in the following sentences.

Her cat caught the large mouse.

The window was open only an inch.

A tired student is not a good student.

When does the train for New York leave the station?

Let the teacher know the minute you have an answer.

Does a big dog have as long a tail as a little dog?

Write an article in the blanks to complete the sentence.

_____ best times to see _____ stars is at night.

_____ good friend tells you _____ truth.

My favorite snack is _____ apple.

It was _____ unusual time to sleep on _____ couch.
