Possessive Pronouns

Pronouns take the place of nouns in a sentence. A possessive pronoun shows ownership.

						ie quaiteri
Circle the possessive pronouns .
my	your	you	its	our	her	him
his	your	t	heir	there	whose	you
Rewrite each sentence to include a possessive pronoun with the noun.
1. I saw the dog that belongs to you. I saw your dog.
2. The coat that belongs to me is warm.
3. This is the house that belongs to Sue
4. Tim's brother is five years old.
5. The horse's leg is sore.
6. Dad is driving the car that belong to us.
Some possessive pronouns can stand alone. These pronouns include yours, mine, ours, hers, his and theirs . Complete each sentence with a possessive pronoun that stands alone.
1. This room	belongs to r	ny siste	rs. This	room is	theirs
2. Those glasses belongs to you. Those glasses are
3. These books belong to Bruce. These books are
4. Two of these dollars belong to me. Two of these dollars are

© ThuVienTiengAnh.Com