

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones:

They're or Their

Their and they're sound the same, but they have different meanings!

- Their is a possessive pronoun. Their house is red.
- They're is a contraction meaning "they are."
They're planning to picnic in the park this weekend.

Complete the sentences with the correct homophone: their or they're.

1. I love cats because _____ small and fluffy.
2. The graduates received _____ diplomas.
3. These toads are jumping high because _____ happy.
4. The married couple put _____ pictures on the wall.
5. The chicks always follow _____ mother.
6. The twins are not allowed to drive the car because _____ too young.
7. I love to eat at Sushi House because _____ food is yummy.
8. _____ going camping near the seashore this summer.

