

HAIDA DRAWINGS

This is a sketch copied from a drawing by a Haida artist named Daxhiigang. It is a drawing that tells the story of a Haida myth called The Dogfish Woman. In the story a husband and wife are on a canoe. The wife is making fun of dogfish (a small kind of shark). Then, a dogfish captures her and takes her to the bottom of the sea. There she learns that dogfish are people too. Her husband goes looking for her at the bottom of the sea, when he finds her she has grown fins and is living with the dogfish people.
