

Have Fun Reading: Choice Board

Directions: Choose one or more activities to complete.

Get Cozy

Make a cozy fort with blankets, and then use a flashlight to read a book.

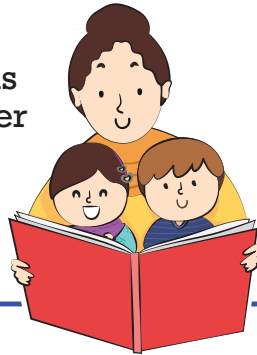

Draw It!

Draw your favorite part of the story. Write a sentence (or a word) about your favorite part.

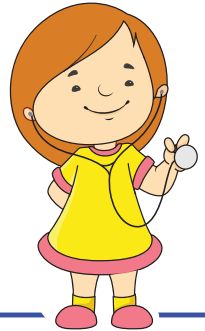

Listen

Use your listening ears as a friend or family member reads to you.

Act It Out

Pretend to be a character from a story you just read. Invite a family member or friend to act out the story with you.

Recommend a Book

Think of your favorite book. Draw a picture or write a sentence about why you enjoyed it. Share the book with a friend or family member.

Make a Prediction

Take a few minutes to look at the front cover and first few pages of your book. Draw or write a prediction (your best guess) about what will happen in the story.

Fiction

A story or book about something that is pretend or make-believe is called fiction. Find a fiction book and read it. Answer the questions below as you read.

Nonfiction

A story or book about something that is real is called nonfiction. Find a nonfiction book and read it. Answer the questions below as you read.

Reading Response Questions:

Fiction:

- Where does this story take place?
- Who are the characters? How are they important to the story?
- What do you think will happen next?
- What is the problem? What do the characters do to solve it?

Nonfiction:

- What is on the front/back cover of this book?
- What is this book about?
- What facts have you learned?
- How do the pictures help tell about this topic?