Festival of Lights

Read about the popular Hindu holiday Diwali, then color the Diwali diya below. As you color, reflect on ways you can be a “light” for others this season.

Diwali is a Hindu festival celebrated in India and around the world. Families come together to celebrate the themes of kindness, knowledge, and purity that are a part of Hindu mythology. They light candles, lanterns, and fireworks, and oil lamps called diyas to help drive out “darkness” or negativity, from their homes.
