

Use the back of each postcard to tell a friend about what the weather is like where you live. Write about what your town looks like this time of year. When you're done, you can ask an adult to help you cut out each card and mail them!

