

The Urinary System

Bladder

The bladder is where urine is stored after it leaves the kidneys. It is comprised of stretchy cells. It expands and contracts as it is filled. Once it reaches 25% the need to go to the bathroom will start. In general, women have a smaller bladder than men.

