

The 5 Senses - Hearing

Ear

One part of the senses is hearing. The ear is capable of determining sound by taking sound waves and simplifying them to an amplified channel. The ear's hearing range is measured on the decibel scale.

Anything over 90dB. can be damaging.

A jet engine at 100 ft is 140dBs.