

The 5 Senses - Sight

Eye

The front part of the eye is the cornea and the second part is the sclera. The iris opens and closes just like the “iris” of a camera to the back of the eye to the rods and cones in the retina. The cones detect color and rods detect brightness of light.

