Identify the Complete Subject of a Sentence

A complete sentence includes a complete subject and a complete predicate.

A complete subject tells who or what is doing something. A complete subject can be one word or more than one word.

One Word	More Than One Word
Mia told my favorite story.	My cousin Mia told my favorite story.
The complete subject is Mia .	The complete subject is my cousin Mia .

Each subject tells who told the story.

Directions: Underline the complete subject in each sentence.

- 1. Kallie finished her test before the rest of the class.
- 2. The lifeguard watches over the swimmers.
- 3. Jayden's house is across the street from the taco stand.
- 4. My whole family went for a walk together.
- 5. This bag holds all of my soccer gear.
- 6. The new children's museum was so much fun to visit!
- 7. Hundreds of people travel to Hendersonville for the apple festival each year.
- 8. The fearless magician entertained the crowd with daring tricks.
- 9. A bright blue bird flew by my window this morning.
- 10. That kitchen table is old and wobbly.
- 11. Grandad's antique piano needs to be tuned each week.
- 12. My nervous dog Rosie hides under the bed.

