Imagery Using Verbs & Adjectives

Vivid imagery emerges when writers are selective about the verbs and adjectives they choose. Read each description. Pay attention to the word choices and to the way that those choices help paint a picture. Then, revise the description using more vivid verbs and adjectives.

Example:

The child let go of her red balloon, and it went into the sky.

The small child released her grip on the thin string of the shiny red balloon, and it floated into the robin egg blue sky, shrinking by the second.

1. The girl brushed her teeth.

2. The bat hit the ball.
