

Inclined Plane

An inclined plane is a board that sits at an angle to the ground. It is used to help raise or lower objects more easily by allowing them to move diagonally instead of up and down.

A wheelchair ramp is one example of an inclined plane. Can you think of any others?