India States and Capitals

India is a large country located in the southern part of Asia. India is a peninsula because it is surrounded on three sides by the Indian Ocean. The part of the Indian Ocean on India's west side is called the Arabian Sea. The part of the Indian Ocean on India's east side is called the Bay of Bengal. The northern part of India has many mountains.

The countries that are next to India are Pakistan, Bangladesh, Myanmar, China, Bhutan, and Nepal.

The capital city of India is New Delhi, located in the northern portion of the country.

India comprises of 29 States and seven Union Territories. Do you know the capital of each state of India?

Parent Tip: Ask your child to read the capital of each state first. Then, ask him to trace over the dotted lines to practice cursive writing while he learns the capitals. Then, have him re-write on the blank lines in cursive. After you finish each page, ask your child to locate that state on the map of India given and color that state in any color of his choice.

Read the fun facts given at the bottom of the page along with your child to find out more about India.
