

Name: _____

Date: _____

It's Grammar Time: Relative Pronouns (That, Which)

A relative pronoun connects a noun with a relative clause that gives more information about the noun. Relative pronouns are usually located after the noun. That makes it clear which person, place, or thing is being referred to.

Two of the most common relative pronouns are that and which.

that	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Refers to things.• The meaning of the sentence would change without the word and the relative clause.	The show that I watched started at 7:00pm.
which	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Refers to things and animals.• The meaning of the sentence would not change without the word and the relative clause. (It is additional information.)	The show, which lasted an hour, was funny.

Directions: Write the correct pronoun from the Word Bank on the line provided.

1. The article _____ I read taught me about the solar system.
2. My favorite song, _____ is popular, came on the radio in the car.
3. I like to shop for shoes _____ fit comfortably.
4. The team won the championship, _____ was surprising and exciting.
5. I wore the sweatshirt _____ I got for my birthday.
6. This toy is a robot _____ changes into a car.
7. We drove by the house _____ had beautiful flowers in the garden.
8. The science fair, _____ was yesterday, gave us a chance to share our projects.

Directions: Write a sentence using the given relative pronoun.

1. that

2. which
