

Name: _____

Date: _____

Journal Writing Task Cards #2

Write a mysterious story. Start with, "There was a knock on the door..."

Write a funny story about two aliens. Include dialogue in your story.

Write a story that takes place under the sea. Underline the adjectives you use to describe the setting.

Describe a small moment from your weekend. Use descriptive language!

Describe a family member in detail. Underline the adjectives you use in your description.

Describe a vacation you took. Include dialogue in your writing.

Write a letter to a good friend. Include two or more examples of why they are a good friend.

Write a letter to a character from your favorite movie or TV show. Include specific details about the character.

Write a letter to your teacher. Start with, "My least favorite part of school is..."

Does homework help kids learn? Write three reasons that support your opinion.

Should the Internet be free for everyone? Write three reasons that support your opinion.

Should kids be allowed to vote? Write three reasons that support your opinion.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Journal Writing Task Cards #2

If you could travel in time, would you rather go to the future or the past? Explain your reasoning.

If you could only use one of your five senses, which would it be? Use sensory language to describe what life would be like.

Would you rather live in the hottest desert or the coldest tundra? Explain your reasoning.

Write a haiku poem. It should be three lines. The first line will have five syllables, the second line will have seven, and the last will have five.

Write a poem or rap about a blue kangaroo.

Write a poem that rhymes. Include a simile or metaphor.

Draw a comic strip featuring your teacher as the main character. Include speech bubbles and/or captions.

Draw a picture of your family. Then write five or more words that remind you of your family.

Cover your whole page in doodles. Include a drawing of yourself.

Write a list of 10 things you've learned this week.

Write 10 questions you have about sixth grade.

Write a list of your top 10 favorite books.