Let's Have Even More Pun!

Homonym: Two or more words that have the same spelling but different meanings.

Homophone: Two or more words that have the same pronunciation but different meanings or spellings.

Pun: A joke that uses a homonym or homophones for their humor.

Ex. The broom swept the nation away.

Part 1: Read each pun below. Then underline the homophone used and explain the pun.

1. What do you call a train loaded with toffee? A chew chew train.

Chew is a homophone. The word chew means to chew something, such as food. "Choo choo" is the sound that a train makes.

2. I went to a seafood disco last month...and pulled a mussel.

3. A bicycle can't stand on its own because it is two-tired.

Part 2: Use the homophones to create your own pun.

1. blue/blew

2. genes/jeans

3. great/grate

4. roll/role
