Literary Nonfiction Response: Argument and Claims

Read the two writing prompts below, and choose one of them to respond to in the space provided. Remember to cite relevant evidence and details from the text to support your thinking.

#1: Identify the author’s central argument, and list the claims given to support it. Describe how relevant the claims are to the argument, and distinguish claims that are supported with evidence from claims that are not.	#2: Evaluate how effective the author’s argument is. Is it well-developed and convincing? Does the author include sufficient relevant evidence to support the claims? How could the argument have been improved?
