

Living Things

Living things can be plants or animals, just like you! They need food, air and water to live. A living thing can also move all by itself and grow bigger! Circle all the objects that are living things.

