

How many words can you make by using the letters in

Long-eared Owl

Fun Facts

- The long-eared owl is shy and able to “freeze” against a perch or branch.
- The long-eared owl is hard to detect because the feathers are colored just like the bark of trees.
- The long-eared owl hunts in open fields and marshes.
- The long-eared owl is silent outside of mating season.
- The long-eared owl usually doesn't build nests but uses abandoned nests 4 to 30 feet high in trees.
- The long eared owl is the most slender and nocturnal of the large owls.