

Name: _____

Date: _____

Make it Realistic!

Read each excerpt that is imaginary. Think about how you can write a new, realistic sentence and then write your sentence on the line. The first one is done for you.

Example:

As Jessica played a game at recess, her arms stretched out and she tagged all twenty children at the same time!

Realistic Sentence: Jessica raced across the playground and tagged two students at the same time!

1. One by one, Mark ate thirty tacos in a single meal and said that he was still hungry!

Realistic Sentence: _____

2. Evangeline decided that she wanted to become an author. By the end of the week, she had written and published five books that were bestsellers in the book store.

Realistic Sentence: _____

3. As Marley hissed furiously, fire came out of his mouth and set the box on fire.

Realistic Sentence: _____

4. Mandy's cat jumped out of the tree and flew across town, landing on top of a building.

Realistic Sentence: _____

5. As I gazed into the backyard, I was amazed to see money growing on the bushes around the house.

Realistic Sentence: _____

