

CANADA

Fill in the blanks with the correct city provided in the box.

- Victoria
- Niagara Falls
- Vancouver
- Quebec City
- Montreal
- Toronto
- Ottawa

Victoria is the capital of British Columbia. It was a port and naval base and is located about 62 miles from Seattle.

Many tourists visit Niagara Falls, Ontario, to see the Falls of the Niagara River.

Vancouver lies along the coast and was an important stop on the trade route between Asia and Europe.

Quebec City is one of Canada's oldest cities and was ruled by the British and French.

French is the official language of Montreal and was historically a fur trade center.

Toronto is the largest city in Canada and is home to the CN Tower.

Ottawa was inhabited by the Algonquin people before the Europeans settled there to trade fur and lumber.