Mapping Out a Scene From a Book

Name _____

Book Title _____Chapter _____

Read over a chapter or two from a book and choose a scene to transform into a script. Try to find a text that involves some juicy dialogue and the same amount of characters as there are people in your group (2-3 people - teacher can adjust as necessary to fit the scene).

Describe your scene in 2-3 sentences:

_____

_____

_____

List the characters involved in this scene. There may only be two. If there are more than three, add others to the back of this page.

Character #1 _____

Character #2 _____

Character #3 _____

Break your scene into three basic parts: Beginning, Middle, and End. In the boxes below, draw what the scene will look like in each part. Include the people who are in the scene and try to show what emotion they will be expressing.
