

Making Predictions - Matching

Match the situation in the left hand column with an event in the right hand column, making a prediction about what you think will happen next. Be prepared to share reasons for your answer.

Martin was feeling bad about his grade on the math test.	Joelle offered to help Martin study for the next math test.
Joelle and Martin are neighbors and they were both invited to the same party in a town 30 minutes away.	Martin returned his gift and got something different.
Martin found out that Joelle got the same gift for their friend's birthday.	Joelle and Martin carpooled to the party.
Joelle noticed that Martin didn't do well on his math test.	Martin and Joelle decided to have a basketball competition.
Martin and Joelle were arguing about who can make more shots from the 3 point line.	Joelle decided to join a basketball team.
Joelle wants to get better at basketball.	Martin asked more questions in math class.