

Measure It!

Wow, that corn grows fast! Let's see how tall it is. Cut out the ruler and have a grown-up help you measure each cornstalk. Write your measurement on the line near the corn.

 _____ ----- _____	 _____ ----- _____	 _____ ----- _____	 _____ ----- _____	 _____ ----- _____
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

