

Subtraction Problems

Use the data found on the page "Mountains of the U.S." and answer the questions below.

1 Subtract the height of the highest mountain in California from the height of the highest mountain in Alaska.

2 Subtract the height of the second highest mountain in Washington from the height of the highest mountain in Washington.

3 Subtract the height of the third highest mountain in Colorado from the height of the fifth highest mountain in Alaska.

4 Subtract the height of the fourth highest mountain in California from the height of the second highest mountain in Colorado.

5 Subtract the height of the lowest mountain in Alaska from the height of the highest mountain in Colorado.

6 Subtract the height of the lowest mountain in California from the height of the lowest mountain in Washington.

7 Subtract the height of the lowest mountain in Colorado from the height of the third highest mountain in California.

8 Subtract the height of the third highest mountain in Washington from the height of the fifth highest mountain in Alaska.