

Homonyms

Homonyms are words that are spelled and pronounced the same, but have different meanings.

Directions: Read the definitions for each bolded word. Then write the number of the correct definition that describes how the word is used in each sentence.

Bank: 1. a place to invest or store money 2. the land along a body of water

_____ I deposited my paycheck at the bank.

_____ We had a barbecue on the bank of the river.

Crane: 1. a large machine that lifts objects 2. a tall bird

_____ My friend likes to fold paper cranes.

_____ The construction crane blocked our view of the city.

Fine: 1. of high quality 2. small or delicate 3. a sum of money owed

_____ The barber prefers to use a fine tooth comb.

_____ Yesterday I paid my fine for the carpool violation.

_____ My grandmother brought out the fine china for our guests.

Match: 1. something that resembles or corresponds with another 2. a game or contest 3. a thin piece of wood used to light a fire

_____ Let's light a match for those candles.

_____ The soccer match was cancelled due to rain.

_____ Those shoes make a great match for this outfit.

Rock: 1. a solid material that forms the surface of Earth 2. a genre of music 3. to sway back and forth

_____ My favorite road trip songs are classic rock.

_____ This rock looks like it has a fossil in it.

_____ You can rock the cradle to help the baby fall asleep.