

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen in late winter and early spring.

It is called ARIES, which is Latin for The Ram.

Draw a RAM over this group of stars below.

