

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen in the spring.

It is called LEO, or the lion.

Draw a LION over this group of stars below.

