

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This group of stars can be seen all year.

It is called THE BIG DIPPER, and is part of The Bigger Bear constellation.

Draw a DIPPER over this group of stars below.

