

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen in November.

It is called ANDROMEDA, a princess in a Greek Legend.

Draw Andromeda over this group of stars below.

