

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen most of the year.

It is called URSA MAJOR, which is Latin for Bigger Bear.

Draw a BEAR over this group of stars below.

