

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen between October and December.

It is called PISCES, also called The Fish.

Draw the FISH over this group of stars below.

