

The Night Sky - Constellations

Constellations are groups of stars that form pictures, such as animals or people, in the night sky. This constellation can be seen in the summer.

It is called SAGITTARIUS, or The Archer.

Draw a bow and arrow over this group of stars below.

