

Name: _____

Date: _____

Nouns & Pronouns: Subject of a Sentence

A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea.	A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.
Cross out any words that are not nouns in the list below.	Cross out any words that are not pronouns in the list below.
bumpy fast juice Dad Hannah the class green California hammer and walk apple crocodile sunny	his food we us Jake she it ten they our nice my so I

Directions: Draw a line to match each noun to the related pronoun.

Rachel	it
the squirrel	they
Mr. Brown	us
the soccer team	him
my mom and I	her

Nouns and pronouns can function as the subject of a sentence. The subject is who or what a sentence is about. Hint: You can find the subject by asking yourself, "Who or what is doing the action?"

Examples: Peter is riding a bike to the park. (noun) He is wearing a helmet. (pronoun)
The grizzly bear was very hungry. (noun) So, it hunted for fish. (pronoun)

NOUNS	PRONOUNS
Circle the subject (noun) in each sentence.	Circle the subject (pronoun) in each sentence.
1. Yasmine studied hard all week.	But, she was still nervous about the math test.
2. Yesterday, Farid scored a goal.	He helped us win the game!
3. That table is messy.	It is covered in paint and glitter!
4. Turean and I are going to see a movie today.	We will eat lots of popcorn, too.
5. Ms. Green's class is on a fieldtrip.	Unfortunately, they will miss the assembly.