

A LONG WALK TO WATER: LETTER FROM NYA

Imagine you are Nya and it has been one year since the well was installed and the school was built in the village. Write a letter to Salva updating him on how life has changed in the village. On the first page of the letter, write a message that includes at least three specific details about how life is different now. Use information from the book to guide your thinking. On the next page of the letter, include two hand-drawn “photographs” from Nya that show how life is different now.
