Na	ame .		Date	Page 1
N S'	OVEL	Anne of Green Gables: The Story Club
"Because when you are imagining, you might as well imagine something worth while."
fr cl	In Anne of Green Gables, Anne Shirley brings her spirit and imagination to Avonlea, frequently daydreaming and getting into trouble. Anne and her friends form a story club where they "cultivate their imaginations" by writing one story a week and sharing it with the group.
	Choose from the story prompts below, and develop an imaginative story. Write story on the lines below, and then share your story with others.			ce your
	a.	Cordelia's life changed forever when she learned she was she'd never even heard of.	the heir to the throne of	f a country
	b.	Bertram didn't know he picked up the wrong suitcase unsomething shocking inside.	til he opened it at home	and found
	С.	Calmly frosting a cake, Geraldine thought she was alone if footsteps in the hallway.	in the house until she he	eard

Name	Date _	Page 2
Anne of Green Gable The Story Club	es:
	, you might as well imagine somethi	ng worth while."