

THE HUNGER GAMES: CHARACTER ARCHETYPE TRADING CARDS

Author Suzanne Collins uses a number of common character and plot archetypes in her novel The Hunger Games. After reading the novel, follow the directions to create your own character archetype trading cards!

Think about the major characters in the story—such as Katniss, Peeta, Gale, and Rue—as well as minor characters—such as Katniss’s mother, Madge, Foxface, and Caesar Flickerman.

Choose six characters from the novel who each represent one of the character archetypes listed below.

The Ally	The Bully	The Caregiver	The Creator	The Guardian
The Herald	The Hero	The Innocent	The Lover	The Mentor
The Rebel	The Ruler	The Trickster	The Villain	The Warrior

*Remember, character archetypes are based on patterns of behavior and driving motivations, not just one-time events!

On the left side of each card, draw a picture of the character. Write their name at the top and where they're from in the circle at the bottom.

In the gold bars on either side of the card, write the archetype that the character represents.

On the right side of each card, write the character's name at the top, and complete the labeled sections. Use evidence from the novel to help you.

Buttercup

District
12

The Guardian

Buttercup

Goals/Motivations:

protect and comfort Prim, stay alive

Strengths:

scrappy, quick

Weaknesses:

mangy, hideous-looking, mean

Memorable moment:

hissing at Katniss for trying to drown him
