

One Thing I Love

During the summer, kids have time to do more of the things they love the most. Think about one thing that you really love to do during the summer. Use the graphic organizer below to help you generate ideas about the one thing you love that you are going to write about. Put your activity in the middle, and use the circles around the outside to write your supporting ideas and details.

Setting
What do you love about the space you are in when you do this activity? Who is with you? Are you alone? Tell the reader about why this setting is so great

Playing video games with your friends?

Feeling
How do you feel when you do this activity? Why does it make you feel that way?

Playing soccer?

Activity

Swimming?

Family cookouts?

Challenges
Challenges can be a good thing or a frustrating thing but you still love this activity. What can be challenging about this activity?

Going to the beach?

Fun
How do you define fun? What is fun about this activity for you?

Reading for hours?