

Other Ways to Say It: Common Verbs #3

When you use strong verbs, your writing becomes more descriptive and impactful. Strong verbs are specific and vivid, and they can evoke emotion from your reader. Look at the bolded verb in this example.

❌ Kellan ate a bag of popcorn.

The verb leaves the reader to interpret what the scene actually looks like. To create a more expressive, specific sentence for your reader, consider replacing the verb with something else. Look at these alternatives.

- ✔ Kellan consumed a bag of popcorn.
- ✔ Kellan devoured a bag of popcorn.
- ✔ Kellan finished off a bag of popcorn.
- ✔ Kellan snacked on a bag of popcorn.
- ✔ Kellan scarfed down a bag of popcorn.

These verbs better express Kellan's actions as he ate a bag of popcorn.

Directions: Look at the verbs below. Then, write down at least five more descriptive ways to say them. Use reference materials, such as a dictionary or a thesaurus, to help you.

*Be sure to keep this worksheet to add more words as you encounter them in your reading and everyday life! You can refer to these lists the next time you are writing.
