

THE HISTORY OF AMERICAN FASHION

THE GREAT DEPRESSION hit in the late 1920s. By the 1930s, many families were struggling for money and had find ways to make all of their possessions, including their clothes, last a long time.

Works better when printed on thicker paper!