

Personification

Personification is the practice of giving human qualities to non-living things or animals in writing and in art. Give the following objects human-like qualities by using the provided objects and keywords in a sentence. (Hint: Use the illustrations as a guide.)

example:

Personify the object using the provided keyword.

book / laughed

The book laughed as the girl tickled its pages.

sneakers / tired

stop sign / scolded

alarm clock / yelled

eggs / sweating

---

---

---

---

piano / sang

---

---

---

---

suitcase / folded

---

---

---

---

Great job! On the back of this page, continue practicing what you have learned by personifying the objects below.

airplane ■ toaster ■ chair

As a bonus activity, draw a picture of the sentence you create.