

Plane Figures

Plane geometry is about shapes like lines, circles, and triangles. Plane figures are made up of a set of sides or curved segments. These are called edges of the figure. The rectangle, the triangle, the square, the hexagon, and the circle are just a few plane figures. Color the picture below using the same color for each shape.

rectangle

triangle

square

hexagon

circle

trapezoid

